Profile

Python developer with a focus on artificial intelligence, recently graduated from Teknikhögskolan. Seeking full-time opportunities to apply and further develop skills in Python, AI, and machine learning.

Who am I?

I am a 36-year-old man, living in Norberg with my wife and three children. Passionate about programming since childhood, starting with websites in 1997. Recently fascinated by AI, I enrolled in a specialized program and quickly got hooked. Today, I am both a web and Python developer with additional knowledge in machine learning and AI.

Eager to bring my skills and enthusiasm into the professional world and contribute to exciting projects. If you're looking for a driven and curious developer with a strong foundation and genuine passion for tech, let's connect!
